

COBA DISCOVERY

THE LOST MAYAN CITY

Experience

Our adventure begins with a little trip to Coba.

A city known for its wealth and as one of the most powerful and biggest Mayan capitals in history.

After getting there, we'll take bicycles to ride through the paths of the ancient city.

Making stops at different interesting spots to take pictures and to witness the ruins from the Mayan civilization.

Including the Nohoch Mul Temple, that is the tallest pyramid in the Riviera Maya, rising more than 40 meters from the ground.

For the next activity, we'll visit the reserve of San Juan and enter an exclusive cenote with crystal-clear water, which happened to be a mayan temple and that nowadays performs other kinds of ceremonies.

Now it is time for lunch. And what better place than a Mayan restaurant with a beautiful view of Lake Coba to relax and prepare for the trip back to the drop-off.
