

PUNTA ALLEN

INTO THE WILD OF SIAN KA'AN

Experience

For this adventure, we'll get on our private boat with roof and travel from end to end all the Sian Ka'an Reserve to find one of the last mayan communities living in this area.

After navigating across lagoons, canals and mangroves, we'll reach a place where fresh and saltwater meet.

Once we get to Punta Allen, we have to board a special boat, capable to go to the open sea, to witness the wildlife living in this faraway place. Watching dolphins, turtles, crocodiles and manatees in their natural environment, is an amazing memory worth keeping

If we have a lucky day (weather-wise speaking), we could reach a reef barrier to snorkel around and visit one of the largest natural pools (blanquial).

Where we can relax, take pictures and enjoy some drinks and snacks.
